FFA achievements recognized

The Appomattox Senior Chapter of Future Farmers of America held its annual Parent-Member Banquet at the ACHS cafeteria April 16. Approximately 200 parents, FFA Alumni and guests joined with FFA members in the evening's activities.

President Richard Jones presided over the banquet, serving as master of ceremonies. Connie Krantz, FFA Chaplain, gave the invocation prior to the banquet meal. Following dinner, the guests were introduced by chapter Sentinel, Glen McClenny and Richard Conner, FFA Secretary, welcomed everyone to the banquet.

Matt Yeatman, state FFA reporter, brought greetings to the banquet from the State FFA Association. Joining Matt was Bobbie Jo Bray, state treasurer, who added her greetings and appreciation.

The program for the evening was the presentation of an FFA film titled "Convention Time-FFA". The film brought out the various aspects of FFA work as well as the principal activities of the national convention. Upon completion of the film the chapter officers conferred the Honorary Chapter Farmer Degree upon four adults who have contributed to the success of the local chapter. Those honored with the degree included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones, parents of chapter president Richard Jones and Mrs. Jones is a past member of the advisory council; Mr. Marshall Goin, owner of Appomattox's National Auto Parts and past advisory council member; and Dr. William Burger, local veterinarian who has assisted greatly in the FFA's animal health programs.

The evening's program concluded with the presentation of the FFA Proficiency awards and special awards. Vice-President Robert Coleman, Treasurer Duane Blanks and Advisor J. L. Burcher announced the various winners and presented the pins and certificates. Proficiency Award winners included: Forest Management, Dennis Stratton; Poultry Production, Richard Jones; Ag. Electrification, Donnie Steadman; R. N. Ashworth Farm Mechanics Award, Scott Elliott; Ag Processing, Jimmy Gilliam; Ag. Sales and Services, Vince McElroy; Beef Production, Roger Walton; Crop Production, Glen McClenny; Dairy Production, Connie Krantz; Diversified Livestock Production, Duane Blanks; Fish and Wildlife Management, Roger Franklin; Fruit and Vegetable Production, Ben Martin; Home and Farmstead Improvement, Ben Martin; Horse Proficiency, Ricky Garrison; Placement in Ag. Production, Ray Cheatham; Sheep Production, Tommy Gilliam, Swine Production, Dean Jamerson, Turf and Landscape Management, Richard Conner; and Tobacco Production, Ray Cheatham.

In addition to the proficiency awards, Cecil Jacobs and Dennis Stratton were honored as chapter winners of the Public Speaking and Extemporaneous Public Speaking Contests. Duane Blanks received recognition as winner of the best record book contest sponsored by the FFA Alumni.

The final award of the evening was the highest award a chapter may present to one of its members, the Star Chapter Farmer Award. This award is presented annually to the member who has done the best job of leadership and contributed to the chapter in many ways. The winner of this year's award was chapeter president, Richard Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Jones of Spout Spring. State Reporter Matt Yeatman presented Richard with his Star Chapter Farmer certificate, pin and plaque and the chapter plaque upon which Richard's name had been engraved.

The chapter would like to expess its thanks to all of those persons who attended and helped make the banquet a success.

Receptionist classes set

The Marketing and Distributive Education Department at Appomattox County High School will be holding Receptionist classes for adults who desire training for future job placement or an upgrading of their skills in their present position.

This course is designed for those individuals whose major responsibilities include switchboard operation, answering office phones, meeting and greeting customers and the public in general in the front office. Topics to be discussed will be increasing one's self confidence, proper grooming techniques, making positive first impressions, proper office procedures and other topics designed specifically for the receptionist.

The receptionist class will meet on Tuesday evenings (7:00-9:30 p.m.) May 5th-May 26th in room 305 at Appomattox County High School. For more information please call Bruce Fall or John Moon at 352-5317 or Mr. Carter at 352-8251. Please register in advance because class enrollment will be limited.
